

MIXED UP.

Everything of Local Form To be Found That is of Interest.

MONDAY.

The steamer Hill City, down, landed at our wharf this morning. She got a big lot of flour from the Union Milling Company.

The city should do something toward defraying the expenses of opening a road from the Bloomfield road to the Gordonville road through the Bainter farm.

Dr. Simmons' Sarsaparilla effectually aids weak, impaired and debilitated organs of both sexes. Its action is quick and lasting. Fifty cents and 50 doses.

Ex-Sheriff Jenkins is in the city today. He came in to make his settlement with the Common Pleas Court as sheriff.

The Sturdivant Bank received a package of the new issue of Silver Certificates last Saturday. They are one dollar notes and the prettiest we think that have been issued for many years. Of course the bank donated one to the editor of the DEMOCRAT.

If you are bilious, try Dr. Sawyer Little's Wide Awake Pills, you will find them just what you want. Try a free sample. They do not gripe. Sold at M. Maple Willson's drug store.

Died, in this city January 23, 1899, William Ellis infant son of Robert G. and Emma Wathen Ranney.

M. E. Leming will finish the work on his saw mill next week and then he will begin sawing lumber again, and will give employment to a large force of hands. He has had loggers in the woods all winter sawing logs. He has hundreds of logs in the neighborhood of the Rock Levee, ready for moving in as soon as he begins running the mill.

Stay that hacking by using Ballard's Horehound Syrup. It arrests the cough, allays irritation of the throat, and relieves congestion of the lungs in a day. It is safe and pleasant to take, and never disappoints. 50 cents. I. Ben. Miller.

Wilson Cramer came in on the train yesterday evening from the lower counties, where he had been attending court.

Our doctors are on the go nearly all the time. The grippe and pneumonia seem to be the trouble with most people calling the doctors.

The drummers say Cape Girardeau is one of the best of all the towns on their road and the best by far of any other town in Southeast Missouri. A drummer remarked the other day that the people of Cape Girardeau didn't appreciate the importance of their town.

Ballard's Snow Liniment. There is no pain it will not relieve, no swelling it will not subside, no wound it will not heal, it will cure frost bites, chilblains, and corns. 25 and 50 cents. I. Ben. Miller.

Mayor Coerver and City Attorney Davis went to Jefferson City today to attend a meeting of representatives of cities of the third class.

J. M. Morrison will probably have the field to himself in the race for councilman in the fourth ward.

Sheriff Gockel will be in the city all this week attending the Common Pleas court. Henry Kopper, his deputy, will assist him with the business of the court.

Small precautions often prove great mischiefs. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are very small pills in size, but are most effective in preventing the most serious forms of liver and stomach troubles. They cure constipation and headache and regulate the bowels. Wm. H. Coerver.

The bent wood factory is doing a splendid business. It is turning out all kinds of bent wood and has orders ahead all the time for all it can turn out.

There is more water in the low lands than there has been before for years.

The 4 o'clock train yesterday evening had about all the passengers it could accommodate.

A cough is an easy thing to cure if taken in time. It is dangerous to neglect one for any length of time. Dr. Simmons' Cough Syrup is guaranteed. Fifty cents a bottle. For sale by all druggists.

The Common Pleas Court is in session. The indications are that it will be a dull term.

Straw hats will soon be in style again. The weather yesterday and today was warm enough for straw hats.

TUESDAY.

W. H. Miller of Jackson is here attending the Common Pleas court.

Col. Hendricks has resigned his position as publisher of the Jackson Herald and he passed through the city today on his way to Illinois.

When you cannot sleep for coughing take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It always gives prompt relief. It is most excellent for colds, too, as it aids expectoration, relieves the lungs and prevents any tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by I. Ben Miller, druggist.

Capt. Schuchert, who has been down with the grippe, is able to be up again.

Joe Fuerth has a fifteen pound boy at his house. Joe will build an addition to his foundry this year.

Moments are useless if trifled away and they are dangerously wasted if consumed by delay in cases where One Minute Cough Cure would bring immediate relief. W. H. Coerver.

There are some few of our people who think that Houck's Missouri and Arkansas Railroad would do this city no good. There are some people here too who don't believe in heaven.

William Regenhart made his final settlement yesterday, as assignee of Stein Brothers.

Don't forget if you use Putnam Fadeless Dyes you don't have to send for a package for wool and one for cotton. Each package colors all fibers. Sold by W. H. Coerver. It

The furniture and fixtures in the Riverview Hotel inventoried at $1,890.70.

A special train went over the St. Louis, Cape Girardeau and Fort Smith railroad this morning. We did not learn what the purpose of the special was.

Running sores, indolent ulcers and similar troubles, even though of many years' standing, may be cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It soothes, strengthens and heals. It is the great pile cure. W. H. Coerver.

J. F. Gordon, the ex-circuit clerk of Pemiscot county, passed through Cairo yesterday on his way to Jefferson City to take a position as one of the clerks in the State Senate.

Our enterprising citizens are making a move to have the Commerce railroad extended up the river to this city. They are sure on the right track.

If it is tried at this time, there will be an interesting case in the Common Pleas Court this week brought here from Dexter on a charge of venue.

The Sons of Veterans are preparing to have a masquerade ball.

Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment, gives instant relief. It allays inflammation and heals. It is prompt in its action and positive in its effect. It is the kind that cures without pain or discomfort. It is for piles only 50 cents, tubes 75 cents. I. Ben. Miller.

A. Ruediger has purchased himself a new buggy horse. He hitched him up this morning and he proved to be a regular circus horse.

Postmaster W. V. Leech is confined to his bed. Mr. Leech has been feeling bad for some time and for the last few days he has been laid up.

Certainly you don't want to suffer with dyspepsia, constipation, sick headache, sallow skin and loss of appetite. You have never tried DeWitt's Little Early Risers for these complaints or you would have been cured. They are small pills but great regulators. Wm. H. Coerver.

Henry Schrader, who has been here for a week or two visiting relatives and friends left for St. Louis this afternoon.

Wilson Cramer is here attending the Common Pleas Court.

KIDNEY DISEASES are the most fatal of all diseases. Foley's Kidney Cure is a guaranteed remedy or money refunded.

On account of sickness in his family Mayor Coerver did not accompany City Attorney Davis to Jefferson City.

Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist church at Minersville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says: "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by I. Ben. Miller.

WEDNESDAY

Louie Tobler and William Summers returned home from West Plains yesterday, where they had been on business.

John A. Hope of Jackson was here yesterday, attending the Common Pleas court.

The "Bicyclist's Best Friend" is a familiar name for DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, always ready for emergencies. While a specific for piles, it also instantly relieves and cures cuts, bruises, salt rheum, eczema and all affections of the skin. It never fails. Wm. H. Coerver.

Last week the heater in the Sturdivant Bank building got out of whack and stove had to be placed in all the rooms throughout the building. It was thought that the heater could not be fixed without sending off to St. Louis or Chicago for an expert, but that did not prove true. Tom Hill, our home plumber, after an examination of the heater, proposed to repair it and put it in good condition. He went to work on it and now it is working as good as ever. Mr. Hill is a first-class mechanic and there is no one sending away for a mechanic to do work in his line.

I have been afflicted with rheumatism for 14 years and nothing seemed to give any relief. I was able to be around most of the time, but constantly suffering. I had tried everything I could buy and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm; which I did, and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured. I am happy to say that it has not since returned. —Josh Edgar, Germantown, Cal. For sale by I. Ben. Miller.

The present term of the Common Pleas court is the dulllest term we have had for several years.

Arthur Astholz left this morning for Perryville to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Ed. Thilenius.

In the proper column will be found the announcement of E. E. McCullough, who is a candidate for County School Commissioner. Prof. McCullough is a Cape Girardeau county boy who is too well known by our people to need any words of commendation from a newspaper.

We are pleased to see that our business men are beginning to realize the fact that the extension of the Commerce road is a necessity.

Otto Buchmann left today for Pemiscot county. Mr. Buchmann owns some land down in Pemiscot, and he went down to look after it.

The boys had John Osborne out last night with his drum. The occasion was a demonstration, patriotic, for Nathaniel Smock for Councilman from the fourth ward. The boys carried banners. On one banner were the words: "Vote for Smock, a clean man from a dirty ward."
